DIRECTOR

JUDITH ELIAS has a B. M. E. from Youngstown State University and did graduate study at Kent State University with Raymond DeMattia, with extensive additional studies under Maurice Sharp. She is on the faculty of The Fine Arts Association in Willoughby. Elias has appeared as soloist with the Lakeland Civic Orchestra in which she is principal flutist, and performs extensively as a member of many fine chamber ensembles in the area. Elias was adjunct instructor in flute and director of the Lake Erie College Flute Choir from 2001-2017. She is currently the director of the Lakeland Civic Flute Choir. She is a member of the Fine Arts Woodwind Quintet.

GUEST CONDUCTOR

MICHAEL ELIAS received a degree in music education from Youngstown State University in 1966, and his master's degree in school administration from Cleveland State University in 1974. Elias retired from Wickliffe High School where he served 24 years as director of instrumental music with the last 15 years as chairperson of the music department. He was also a member of the Lakeland Civic Band in which he was principal clarinetist and concert master for 40 years. Elia was an adjudicator for the Ohio Music Education Association for 35 years. He is grateful to have the opportunity to conduct this outstanding flute choir at this concert.

GUEST PERFORMER

DR. ROBERT L. BROWN, Professor Emeritus of Lakeland Community College, began piano studies at age six. At 12 years of age, his first "gig" was as a dance school pianist, followed by his first performances at age 14 with resort (etc.) bands. After completing masters and doctoral degrees at Indiana and Columbia Universities, he embarked on a 40-year career as music professor and department chair serving at Lincoln Memorial University (TN) and Lakeland Community College. His service as church musician (along with wife, Mary) continues into a 45th year.

NARRATOR

HERMAN RUEGER is a product of the Wickliffe City Schools. His first dramatic presentation was that of head angel in the Worden Elementary School Christmas Pageant under the direction of Fred Lutz. His musical training continued through high school under the direction of Charles Frank (instrumental) and Michael Lenenski (vocal/speech). They were responsible for developing a life-long love and appreciation of good music. After graduation from Kent State University, Rueger became an elementary educator teaching in the Wickliffe City Schools. He also, seasonally, served as a National Park Service ranger/historic interpreter at Jamestown/Yorktown, (Colonial National Historic Park) and Gettysburg National Military Park. For a period of time, he owned and operated a local business. He firmly believes that good music can inspire, uplift spirits and bring untold enjoyment to your life. He is delighted to have been asked to narrate the Lakeland Civic Flute Choir concert.

The Lakeland Civic Flute Choir

THE LAKELAND CIVIC FLUTE CHOIR consists of many members of the previous Lake Erie College Flute Choir, which was in existence from 2001-2017, originated by Judith Elias, now director of the Lakeland Civic Flute Choir. While at Lake Erie College, the flute choir frequently collaborated with the Lake Erie College Community Chorus. In the fall of 2017, the flute choir decided to become separate from Lake Erie College and became The Hildegarden Flute Choir, as they were invited to rehearse and perform at The Hildegarden in Fairport Harbor, Ohio. The Hildegarden Flute Choir was able to add other instruments such as a mandolin, acoustic guitar, guitarrón, piano and percussion instruments on some of their music. When the Hildegarden closed in the spring of 2018, they became The Lake Flute Choir, rehearsing on the campus of St. Mary Catholic Church in Painesville, Ohio, where they had performed on several occasions. In the spring of 2020, they were invited by music department chair, Dr. Matthew Saunders to be in residence at Lakeland Community College to provide a daytime ensemble that could include the Lakeland students. Since it is an already established flute choir, this could be beneficial to the Lakeland students and provide a rehearsal and performance location for the flute choir. The Lakeland Civic Flute Choir is very excited about this opportunity and celebrates their second live performance at Lakeland Community College. The Lakeland Civic Flute Choir is open to new members by audition, including students and community members with some previous performance experience. If you are interested, please contact Judith Elias at jelias1@lakelandcc.edu
