Some days you just don't feel like yourself

In a zany turn of events, a stressed-out mom and her rebellious teenage daughter find they have swapped minds. Now living in each other's bodies, they struggle to behave as the other person. And, they have only one day before mom's big wedding to figure out how to switch back! Their challenges bring about both hilarious and touching situations - and important lessons about self-acceptance, respect and just how much they love each other.

This new musical is an updated take on the celebrated Mary Rodgers' novel that was also made into three popular movies. The story is profound, the action is lively and the music is magical.
