The Lakeland Civic Theatre presents the award-winning, hilarious comedy Noises Off

Directed by Jordan Cooper and produced by Dr. Martin Friedman.

Play dates are: September 23, 24, 30 and October 1, 7 and 8 at 7:30 p.m. and September 25, October 2 and 9 at 2 p.m.

The story:

Considered one of the classic laugh-out-loud farces, Noises Off is a multi-award winning play for Best Comedy, written by Tony Award-winning playwright Michael Fryan. The story takes place both on the stage and backstage during the presentation of a play called Nothing On. The interplay between the actors as they try to mesh for the audience but sabotage each other behind the scenes, makes for a hysterical spectacle, that includes doors slamming, people falling down steps and characters left on stage with nothing on.

Tickets for the play

Tickets are available at the box office or online at lakelandcc.edu/arts. Ticket prices are $15 for adults, $12 for seniors and veterans, and $7 for students. For online tickets, guests should bring their order confirmation to show at the door.

The play takes place in the Dr. Wayne L. Rodehorst Performing Arts Center on the first floor of the D-Building on Lakeland's campus.
