

Bachelor of Arts in Public Safety Management

IVDL

CLEVELAND STATE UNIVERSITY

The Public Safety Management Partnership program allows students to earn a Bachelor of Arts degree without leaving the campus of Lakeland Community College by taking classes through the Holden University Center. Cleveland State classes are taught via Distance Learning (IVDL) by CSU faculty and instructors. The Public Safety Management degree is designed to equip public safety officials with additional management and communication skills. It provides an in-depth study of community safety needs and problems, as well as analytical tools. Students may complete some major requirements through the Assessment and Accreditation for Prior Learning, Credit for Life Experience program available through the College of Urban Affairs.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

Partnership students must meet the Cleveland State admission standards for transfer students, including a 2.0 cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA) from Lakeland Community College and any additional colleges or universities attended. Partnership students must complete the undergraduate admissions application and partnership application supplement form.

TUITION & FEES:

Cleveland State tuition for each academic year is available at www.csuohio.edu/treasury-services/tuition-and-fees.
