

50 Acts of Service

Service Project Title	Welding Service Project
Date(s)	Starts week of Jan 22 through April
Brief Description	Join in to createwith LCC Students and Lake Shore Compact students in the welding lab at LCC.
Number of people needed	Welding students – A Ryan Eubank service project volunteers are welcome.
Full Description	Our welding students and Lake Shore Compact students will collaborate to make the decorations for the Rainbow Babies and Children's Hospital Fundraising Event in April 2018. The students have envisioned a theme called the "Great Outdoors". Ryan Eubank and students will be making fire pits; candelabras; a working waterfall and full sized animals; a rock climbing wall feature, over-sized Adirondack chairs, cocktail bars with in rainbow colors and 95 welded centerpieces. The welding students will help plan, organize and set up for this event. You can join in too! 1200 people are expected to attend the event.
Location	Lakeland Welding lab
Resources Required	Materials supplied and donated. All fabrication and labor to install per code donated by Instructor and students
Date and Time	Begins week of Jan 22 (hours vary) sign up for a schedule of times to learn!
Important Information	Protective clothing and equipment will be supplied.
Contact Person	Ryan Eubank reubank@lakelandcc.edu 440-796-9825