

Bachelor of Arts in Urban Studies

IVDL

CLEVELAND STATE UNIVERSITY

The Urban Studies Partnership program allows students to earn a Bachelor of Arts degree without leaving the campus of Lakeland Community College. Cleveland State University classes are taught via Distance Learning (IVDL) by CSU faculty. The Urban Studies major entails the study of America's cities, metropolitan areas, and their people. Students learn about the cultural, political, and historical aspects of urban living and the influence of these factors on the growth and decline of businesses and neighborhoods. Students may complete some major requirements through the Assessment and Accreditation for Prior Learning, Credit for Life Experience program.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

Partnership students must meet the Cleveland State University admission standards for transfer students, including a 2.0 cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA) from Lakeland Community College and any additional colleges or universities attended. Partnership students must complete the undergraduate admissions application and partnership application supplement form.

TUITION & FEES:

Cleveland State tuition rates for each academic year are available at: www.csuohio.edu/treasury-services/tuition-and-fees.

REGISTRATION PROCEDURE:

Prospective partnership students are encouraged to contact the CSU partnership office for a preliminary evaluation of their course credits. Once admitted, students should meet with their academic advisor once a semester. Cleveland State University class registration is available online through the CSU CampusNet website. For more information please contact the partnership office at (440) 525-7471 or email lcc@csuohio.edu.
