

Are you facing or experiencing a divorce?

This workshop could help!

It will give you useful legal, financial and psychological information.

What Women Need to Know About Divorce Saturday, January 28, 2012 • 9:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

If you are contemplating a separation or divorce, this workshop is a must! An attorney, accountant and a psychologist will present an overview of the basic issues involved in ending a marriage. You will learn about legal options, the legal costs involved and important pre-divorce considerations. Important tax information will be shared. We will discuss the emotional aspects when deciding if a divorce is right for you, and coping strategies you can use when seeking a divorce. Learn how to make an informed decision for yourself and your children.

Presented by: Linda Cooper, Attorney at Law
Andrea Lograsso, Certified Public Accountant
Dr. Kathy Whan-Marko, Psychologist

Fee: $39 Room: A-2101

This program is presented three times a year: fall, winter and spring.

Sponsored by:

The Women's Center at Lakeland Community College

For more information or to register, call 440-525-7322.

