Inspector Bellamy (Bellamy)

Director Claude Chabrol casts Gérard Depardieu as vacationing Inspector Bellamy, who finds himself involved in multiple mysteries when his obnoxious younger brother comes to visit. An unidentified body in a car wreck, an insurance scam, and a treacherous mistress complicates everything.

Friday, October 28
3:30 & 7:30 p.m. • H-101

Joueuse (Queen to Play)

Hélène slowly transforms from a hard-working wife and mother to a creature of complex strategies and secret smiles when she becomes obsessed with playing chess.

Friday, October 14
3:30 & 7:30 p.m. • H-101

L'Affaire Farewell (Farewell)

This nail-biting espionage drama is based on little known true events from the early 1980's that helped bring down the Soviet Union. A KGB colonel becomes completely disillusioned with Communism and leaks highly classified documents to a French spy. A compelling study of the domestic lives of secret agents.

Friday, October 21
3:30 & 7:30 p.m. • H-101

Nénette (Nénette)

This film is a documentary of Borneo native orangutan and Paris resident Nénette. Watching Nénette watch those who gape at her is an endlessly intriguing, multi-layered exercise in voyeurism.

Friday, November 4
3:30 & 7:30 p.m. • H-101

L'Illusioniste (The Illusionist)

In this Best Animated Film from the New York Critics Circle, 2010, a magician finds a special teenage friend, Alice, a poor cleaning girl. As she follows him, a special father-daughter relationship develops that doesn't require magic.
