

Math Matters		What to think about	Next Steps & Lakeland Resources	Contact
	Getting started in my college process	I've met the Math Placement requirement.	What do I do now?	Attend NSO (New Student Orientation) and/or meet with Counselor.	Student Service Center Counseling & Advising Center
		Take the Placement Test.	Is my math score just short of what I need?	Get a placement score evaluation.	Meet with Math Placement Specialist.	Christy Blasier, cblasier@lakelandcc.edu
				Retake the Placement Test.	Attend Placement Test Prep	Schedule your test! Test Center
					Personalized Test Help
Online Practice Resources
	Getting ready to tackle math		How can I build my math skills and confidence?	Get a boost before you start your math course.	TACKLE Math Resources cblasier@lakelandcc.edu
		Campus resources for improving math skills and building confidence.	I need help. What math support resources are available?	Strategies for math class success.	Communicate & meet with your professor.	Learning Center
	Use Tutoring
	Walk-in help at Math-in-Minutes Table
	Women's Center Math Empowerment Group
	Veteran's Math Group
	Meet with math placement specialist!
	Getting through my math class	Math study skills	How do I study for math?	General Study Skills	Homework and Test-taking strategies	Meet with
Math anxiety	How do I tackle my math anxiety?	Managing Test Anxiety	Video: Test Anxiety	Math Placement Specialist, Christy Blasier cblasier@lakelandcc.edu
Online resources	Where can I find math practice online?	Khan Academy	WebMath

Completion

Getting to completion

Plan the next math course.

How do I know what my next math move is?

I am eligible to take the next math course.

Meet with a counselor.

Counseling & Advising Center

Meet with Math Placement Specialist.

I am not eligible to take the next math course.

TACKLE Math Resources
cblasier@lakelandcc.edu

Learning Center